

Discipline Policy

Abbotsford United Soccer Club (AUSC), in accordance with BC Soccer policies will refer all discipline and dispute matters through AUSC General Manager, to the Club's Dispute & Discipline Committee as a first and initial step in any discipline matter. All matters brought to the Committee are confidential and will be reviewed or heard as appropriate and necessary to comply with Governing Body policies. Club-specific disciplinary action, if necessary, will be applied as the Committee solely determines. Please contact the General Manager for any further information regarding discipline matters, or for clarification on the policies of BC Soccer provided below.
